Fate of Sweet Girl Under graduates at Columbia Is Unsettled.

After introducing a copy of the agreement between the Prieths and the Washington Publishing Company showing the transfer of the property to the company after the raid on the plant of the New Jersey Preis-Zeifung last October, the Government yesterday rested its case against Benedict and Edwin S. Prieth femmer publishers of the MAY CONTINUE CLASSES

But When Campus Becomes Camp It May Be Hard to Keep Academic.

When Columbia University October wuffers a war change into something new and strange" (apologies to Mr Shakespeare, please); when by the decree of the Government New York's great institution of learning becomes at army training camp, what is to become of the girls up there?

In the outline of the plans for the Student Army Training Corps, which resources to the work, no mention is made of the sweet girl undergraduates, but there are lots of them there—800 in Barnard College, for instance. Barnard College, for instance. Teachers College, a part of Columbia, is swarming with women, and in almost all the advanced courses offered at the universi omen graduates studying side by

Just how many coeds there are this year could not be ascertained yesterday, but Miss Virginia Gildersleeve, dean of Barnard, said that at one time there sariard, said that at one time there there 1,000. Fewer came in this fall, but still there are a good many. If Columbia's educational system is to be scrapped will these women students have to put on khaki with the lads or will they be sent home?

Barnard May Continue.

Neither, probably, Miss Gildersleeve ys. So far as she knows Barnard is be allowed to go right along, subject Uncle Sam's demands on space and courses in sciences, languages and m are necessary to the war, for this against knowledge, and not only man but the ability to harness the of the earth and the air will

PROPAGANDA JOKER SEEN

Text Taken From Australian Periodical's "Catechism," Charles Lanier Says.

George Creel, not the National Secur y League, caused the withdrawal from print of the book "Two Thousand Questions and Answers About the War." ac cording to Charles Lanler, treasurer of the Review of Reviews Company.

The National Security League anounced on Tuesday that at its request the book, which contained matter found, apparently, to be German propagands, was withdrawn by the George H. Doran Company, which published it for the Review of Reviews Company, Mr. Lanier says the withdrawal took place two months before any criticism came from the National Security League.

Text for Question Book.

"For more than three years," says Mr. Lanier, "there has been published in each issue of the Australian periodical stead's Review a chapter of concise questions and answers about details of the war. Last year we planned to issue a volume of this nature to include most volume of this nature to include mos these questions and answers printed in the Australian 'Catechism' and many others added by our editors as more in-teresting to American readers.

"On investigation of the objectionable passages, of which there were a num-ber, it was found that practically all of them were from the pen of the British journalist' who had constructed the 'Catechism of the War,' they having been passed by the censor and published in Australia; and that it was this knowledge of the origin of the paragraphs and a consequent assumption of their propriety that had led to laxity in the sub-editing of those portions of going to be surrounded by a scaffolding in the sub-editing of those portions o
